GENERAL:

1. The Regional Council / Chapter which is authorized to host the National Final Round of the competition for a particular year, will be required to make announcement well in advance regarding date, venue & place of national final round. They will also decide and announce the “topic” for the elocution competition. Announcement in this regard is to be published in student company secretary and institute’s website. Intimation in this regard is also required to be sent to all Regional Councils / Chapters for informing the students at large.
2. All Chapters & Regional councils will make announcement for date of their respective Chapter level round & Regional level round well in advance. In any case the all four regional level rounds should be concluded well before the date of National Level Round.
3. The Chapters are required to conduct the preliminary rounds at their end. For the convenience of the students they must announce the dates of the preliminary rounds well in advance.
4. The Winner (one student) and the runner up (one student) of the preliminary round at Chapter level would qualify to represent the respective chapter at the Regional Level Round to be held at their respective Regional Council.

- 5 After the preliminary rounds, the Chapters should forward the details of the winner & runner-up (viz. Names, Student Registration Number, passport size photographs along with the marks) to their respective Regional Council.
- 6 The Regional Council will conduct the Regional Round of the competition. The Regional Councils are required to announce the dates of the Regional Round well in advance.
7. The winner (one student) and the runner up (one student) of the Regional Round held at each Regional Council will participate in the National Round of the competition. After the Regional Round of the competition is over, each Regional Council will forward the details of the winner & runner-up (viz. Names, Student Registration Number, passport size photographs along with the marks) to the concerned Regional Council / or Chapter who is hosting the National Round of the competition.
8. The discretion lies with the respective Regional Council / Chapter with regard to the place, venue, date & timings etc. for holding Chapter level Round / Regional Level Round / National Level Round respectively.
9. There should be minimum two judges for both the Chapter level round & Regional Level Round. One judge could be from the academic field and the other could be for the industry. The judges as far as possible should be non-members of the Institute.

Whereas there would be three judges for the National final round. One judge would be from the academic field and the other two would be from the industry
10. As per the policy followed by the Institute, all the rounds of event (viz. Chapter Round, Regional Round & National Round) are to be organized on a self-sustained basis. In this connection, institute's e-mail dated 21.09.11 regarding guidelines for reimbursement of expenses incurred may please be referred.
11. The Dress Code will be formal.
